

Family and Friends Day

Saturday, October 7

Check-in Begins!

8:00 – 9:00am, 2nd floor Coeur de Catherine, Information Center

Welcome families and friends! Pick up information packets that include the day's events, maps, and Menchie's Frozen Yogurt coupon.

Check-in will move up to the 3rd floor outside of the President's Dining Room and Faculty/Staff Lounge once the Parent and Family Association Continental Breakfast has begun and then down to the 1st floor Dining Room after the start of the Saturday Salon.

Parent and Family Association Continental Breakfast

9:00 – 9:45am, 3rd Floor Coeur de Catherine, President's Dining Room and Faculty/Staff Lounge

Grab a bite to eat before the Saturday Salon, meet members of the Parent and Family Association. Get any questions answered about being a St. Kate's parent!

Saturday Salon: St. Kate's Mission Matters: Catholic, Women, Liberal Arts

10:00am – 12:00pm, Rauenhurst Ballroom, 3rd floor Coeur de Catherine

This session introduces students, parents, and families to our tripartite mission - Catholic, Women, and Liberal Arts - through storytelling, conversation, and reflection. This is an opportunity for you to interact with our founding Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet as well as our faculty and alumnae, to discover what our mission means to you.

Bookstore Hours

Vinyasa: Connecting Global Textiles and Sustainable Design

Dr. Anupama Pasricha

Vinyasa is a Sanskrit word meaning "to place in a special place." It is widely known as a yoga sequence that focuses on the flow of physical movement to experience an awakening, consciousness and thoughtful placement. Guided by Hannover Principles of Sustainable Design, this is an exhibition of contemporary fashions by Dr. Anupama Pasricha, chair of the Apparel, Merchandising and Design Department. Made from eco-friendly Indian fabrics, her designs are intentionally created to develop a heightened awareness of globalization and sustainability in contemporary clothing.

East Gallery

Like a Girl

Lizzie Wortham

Using a variety of painting techniques, Wortham creates abstracted representations of girlhood that explore the complex mingling of nostalgia and memory, while evoking the vulnerability of adolescence.
